

Responsibilities:

Find suppliers to achieve best practice in cost, quality and delivery.
Manage sourcing projects through RFQs to delivery.
Develop supplier skills, including APQP, PPAP, SPC, and Design Review.
Stick to sourcing procedure and follow up and close all open issues regarding development of projects.
Cost saving implementation for both current purchased items and new project
Perform Supplier site audits, and verify corrective action process at supplier for Quality and EH&S.
Understanding pricing structure of a certain manufacturing process
Negotiate Costs, and supply programs
Actively follow up market material prices and report as/where needed.
To provide visit reports and follow up actions for all supplier visits
Create and maintain KPI's of supplier, material, market performance

Requirements:

Bachelor degree in Engineering or equal
Experience in sourcing / purchasing
Good understanding of supply chain Management
Proficient in written and spoken English and Chinese Mandarin
Good technical, communication and negotiation skills
Team player and self-driven
Ability to travel within and outside of China
Have basic ability to read and understand specification drawings/prints
Computer Proficient (Microsoft Office, Internet)